JUSTICE ON TRIAL

The Case of Mumia Abu-Jamal

Big Noise Films Director: Kouross Esmaeli Producer: Johanna Fernandez (65 mins)

Mumia Abu-Jamal, America's best-known class war prisoner, has been on death row for 28 years for a murder he did not commit. A former Black Panther and renowned author whose writings have appeared in publications ranging from the Yale Law Review to street papers for the homeless, Mumia is hailed as "the voice of the voiceless." Justice on Trial exposes many aspects of his legal lynching – judicial bias, prosecutorial misconduct, racism, police corruption and evidence tampering. This hard-hitting indictment of the U.S. "justice" system was produced on a shoe-string budget, and money collected at the door will go directly to "Big Noise" to help defray the cost of creating this powerful film.
